

Announcing an Industry First

from Henry Osiecki and the team at Bio Concepts

When Henry Osiecki founded Bio Concepts his mission statement included the desire to provide advancement in the field of nutritional medicine through high quality education. Henry and the team at Bio Concepts are harnessing this vision by creating the Bio Concepts Education Centre, a subscription-based educational portal that will further your clinical education and help you to become a leader in the field.

THE BIO CONCEPTS EDUCATION CENTRE WILL GIVE YOU EXCLUSIVE ACCESS TO:

-  Education on Demand - An industry first, this showcases a back catalogue of webinars and training videos as well as interpretations of clinical trials and their relevance to practice. The centre also contains comprehensive case studies, and common practitioner questions and answers.
-  Access to the hidden "Osiecki Files" - Collections of current and past research from Henry and Michael Osiecki's careers as well as exclusive opinion pieces and practitioner questions and answers.
-  eBook Resources - extracts and detailed video explanations on some of Henry Osiecki's texts.
-  Access to the Natural Standards Database - Valued at $199.
-  Clinical Toolbox - Access to tools and interpretations such as a searchable nutrient table that will help in a clinical setting. This also includes clinical experience from respected practitioners and their take on nutrients and conditions.
-  Competition & Promotions - Exclusive promotions and giveaways for members only.
-  Member Only Discounts - From the Bio Concepts online store, these discounts apply to events, publications and e-books.

UPDATED REGULARLY WITH NEW CONTENT.
